

No, Not Alone – Hymn

Words and Music by Heather Schopf

I am not alone without a Helper,
I am not alone while on my knees.
For when my feeble prayers fall silent,
With groaning deep, the Spirit speaks for me.
No, not alone without a Teacher,
No, not alone without a Guide.
I understand what once was mystery;
The Spirit gives to me the mind of Christ.

Romans 8:26

I Corinthians 2:13-16

I am not alone without a promise,
Not without a claim on Heaven's prize.
Because the Spirit dwells within me,
Now everything in Christ is surely mine!
No, not alone without a Witness;
The Voice within has testified,
"You are a child of God the Father".
How clearly I have heard His silent cry!

Ephesians 1:13-14, Romans 8:11

Romans 8:15-16

I am not alone without His power,
For the God who saves will sanctify.
The Spirit breathed and I awakened.
Now with that very power He purifies.
No, not alone without a boldness,
Replacing fear with love and might.
Oh what a gift the Spirit gives me –
To bravely stand and boast of Jesus Christ!

Galatians 3:3, Romans 8:12-14

Acts 4:8-13, 2 Timothy 1:7

I am not alone without a Comfort,
I am not alone to face the storm.
The Prince of Peace has sent His Spirit.
Oh, what is there to calm or comfort more?
No, not alone without His presence;
Though all forsake, He still remains!
Who could have known when Christ departed
Just how much closer now my God became?

John 14:16, Isaiah 9:6

John 16:7, Matthew 28:20

Bridge:

The God Who came would rise and go
Up through the clouds, up to His home
Yet as He went, a promise He sent,
"I will never leave you all alone."

Matthew 28:20
