

An Anchor That Keeps the Soul

Original Words and Music by Priscilla Owens and William Kirkpatrick
Arrangement by Heather Schopf

Will your anchor hold in the storms of life
When the clouds surround in the dark of night?
When your vessel sways in the driving rain,
Will you drift or firm remain?

We have an anchor that keeps the soul
Safe and secure while the strong winds blow;
Firm in the Rock that can never move,
Firm in the Savior's love.

It will surely hold in the face of fear,
In an angry storm when the waves come near.
Though the tempest rage and the wild winds blow,
Not a wave can overthrow!

It will firmly hold in the floods of death;
It will never bend through the final test.
On the rising tide, it can never give way.
"Fear not," I hear Him say!

When our eyes behold through the cloudy night
The city of gold, the harbor of light,
We will anchor fast by the heavenly shore
With the storms all past forever more!
